

Pad Kirtan:

“Ber bhai terat Nandkumar”

From “Prem Ras Madira” (“Nectar of Divine Love”)
by Jagadguru Shri Kripalu ji Maharaj

बेर भइ टेरत नंदकुमार ।

Ber bhai terat Nandkumar.

A devotee lovingly complains to his Lord, “Oh, Krishna!
You are not paying any attention me.”

द्वार परो रिरियात पतिति इक, तुम पतितन रखवार ।

Dwar paro ririyat patit ik, tum Patitan Rakhvar.

This fallen soul has been crying and calling out at Your door for so long, and you are said to be the protector of fallen souls.

संतन कहत पतितपावन तोहिं, पुनि कत करत अबार ।

Santan kahat patit pavan tohin, pun kat karat abar?

Saints call you the Deliverer of the downtrodden,
so why are you delaying in justifying this name to me?

सोये जाय क्षीरसागर या, कान तेल लिय डार ।

Soye jay kchir-sagar ya, kan tel liya dar?

Did you assume Your form as Mahavishnu and fall asleep in the milky ocean even before dissolution? Or did you put oil in Your ears so you can't hear my heart's lament?

अथवा भयो समाप्त तिहारो, करुणा को भण्डार ।

Athava bhayo samapt tiharo, karuna ko bhandar?

Or is Your supply of mercy exhausted?

या किय मान 'कृपालु' मानिनिहिं, रिझवत कुंज मझार ॥

Ya kiya maan 'Kripalu' maaninihin, rijhavat kunj majhar?

Jagadguru Shri Kripalu ji says, “Or is it that Shri Radha is doing maan leela with You, and you have gone to the groves of Vrindaban to look for Her and appease Her?”
